10th Sunday of the Year

HOPE AND LIFE

Today's readings tell the story of two widows. The first reading relates the plight of the widow with whom the prophet Elijah stayed; the Gospel tells about the widow of Nain. In each story, the widow's only son had died. For people who lived in those cultures, the son was the only support of a widow, and the carrying on of the family name by the son was equal to immortality. A widow whose only son has died could lose all hope.

Elijah and Jesus are the restorers of hope; they bring the sons back to life. Saint Paul was metaphorically raised from the dead when he experienced the conversion and call from God that he describes in today's second reading.

What are Christians called to do today? We may not be able to raise the dead, but perhaps we can rekindle hope for a single parent. We may not be able to convert a persecutor like Paul, but if we speak the gospel openly and gently with our lives, we might touch a life with the Good News.

Special Collection for Emergency Storm Relief

At the request of Cardinal Timothy Dolan, president of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops, Bishop Persico has directed the Diocese of Erie to take up a special collection on the weekend of June 15-16 for emergency storm relief within our nation. Collected funds will support Catholic Charities, USA – the official domestic relief agency of the U.S. Catholic Church. Funds will help victims of the recent tornados in Oklahoma and other emerging needs resulting from natural disasters in the U.S. More information can be found at www.catholiccharitiesusa.org.
